25X1 5. [ ] - GLC) In response to his query, I advised Mr. Jack Leahy, Congressional Relations, Department of State, that we had no responsibility for [ ]

25X1 6. [ ] JMM) Discussed the Ervin bill, S. 782, with [ ] General Counsel of NSA, who says that NSA still hopes for a complete exemption. I said this was certainly our position and we would so state in response to the letter from Chairman Henderson, of the House Subcommittee on Manpower and Civil Service, asking for Agency views.

25X1 [ ] understands that Henderson plans to report out the bill without hearings, granting both CIA and NSA such exemptions "as they need."

25X1 [ ] said he hoped the Director would recommend a complete exemption for both NSA and CIA. I said I thought this was his intention, and would keep [ ] informed of any developments.
